An Art Quilt is a piece of highly collectible artwork. It isn't designed to be used on a bed like a traditional quilt, but is meant to be hung on a wall like a painting. Artists use fiber as their medium and may dye, paint, cut, tear or fuse the fabric or other fibers as part of their work. The pieces may be embellished with beads, buttons, photos, or found objects.

Final Art Walk

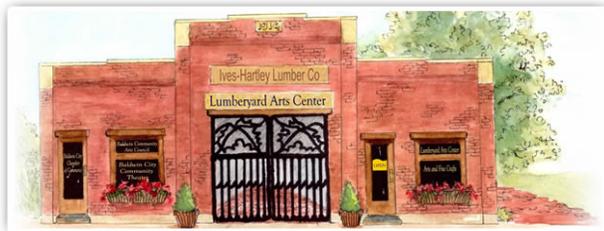

The Lumberyard Arts Center will host the final art walk of this season on Friday, September 16th. Come enjoy the exhibits, meet the artists and sign up to be a friend of the Lumberyard Arts Center.

In the past years, Baldwin has had two separate art organizations - Baldwin Community Arts Council and more recently, the Lumberyard Arts Center. The BCAC was formed in 1985 with the dream of "Building a Home for the Arts." With the dedication and opening of the Lumberyard Arts Center, this dream has, at least partly, been realized. With heartfelt thanks to the founders of the BCAC for their vision and contributions to our community, we have now merged these two organizations into one - The Lumberyard Arts Center. It is our intention to continue many of the traditions started by BCAC, which have "woven a tapestry of richly hued, vibrant art experiences for young and old alike in the Baldwin community." (Ruth Dickinson, BCAC President, 1997)

Our first membership drive will take place at September art walk. Come and learn how your contributions will continue this dream into the future as we work to finish the theater and keep Baldwin City a thriving "Home for the Arts."
